

ARIZONA GRAND RESORT™

Fun. Friendly. Naturally Grand.™

Samuel M. Grossman
Founder of Grossman Company Properties

Sam Grossman is Founding Principal of Grossman Company Properties (GCP), one of the premier commercial and residential developers in the western United States. During the past 45 years, GCP has built, developed and managed more than 14 million square feet of high-quality properties, including the Arizona Biltmore Resort, Biltmore Fashion Park and the Phoenix Spectrum Mall. Grossman began his real estate career with the purchase of Chris-Town Mall in 1964 and eventually built a portfolio of commercial properties including shopping centers, office buildings, hotels and resorts, multi-family residential and agricultural land.

He attended UCLA and Stanford University and was Arizona's Democratic candidate for the United States Senate in 1970. Sam is a well known commercial real estate lecturer and has spoken in various cities around the world, including Rio, Sydney, Acapulco, Copenhagen, Hong Kong, and major cities throughout the United States. He is a graduating member of the Young Presidents' Organization, a member of the Chief Executive Organization, a retiring member of the Board of Trustees of the United States Ski Team and Founder of the Arizona Biltmore Children's Charities. He is also a past council member of the Urban Land Institute and International Council of Shopping Centers.